Discover festive gifts and local treasures at one of Norfolk’s most iconic Christmas markets

Pensthorpe’s Christmas Market returns on Sunday 29 November 2026 with more than 70 stalls and the chance to upgrade your ticket for a full day at Pensthorpe

One of Norfolk’s most established Christmas markets returns to the iconic setting of Pensthorpe on Sunday 29 November 2026, from 10am to 3pm.

Bringing together more than 70 indoor and outdoor stalls, Pensthorpe’s Christmas Market promises a festive day of shopping, food and inspiration, with local makers and independent businesses showcasing thoughtful gifts, handmade crafts and artisan treats.

Set in the beautiful surroundings of Pensthorpe near Fakenham, the market is an opportunity to enjoy a much-loved Norfolk Christmas tradition while finding something special for friends and family.

Shoppers can browse original artwork, Norfolk-inspired prints, illustrated greetings cards, lamps and lanterns, handcrafted metal sculptures, leather goods, candles and home fragrances. Crochet and cross-stitch kits offer gifts for creative minds, while vintage clothing, handmade pet accessories and dog biscuits mean there is plenty to discover for every member of the family.

Makers include Loudle Design, Kurt Moore Design, Mary Valentine Prints, Feather & Hare, Acorn Forge and Ian Stevens Leathersmith.

For those shopping for the festive table, there will be artisan cheeses, chutneys, handmade pies and chilli jams, alongside gin, rum, cider, mead and alcohol-free cocktails. Food and drink sellers include Cambridge Artisan Cheese, Brockleby’s, Walnut Tree Distillery, East Norfolk Cider, Blue Jay Meadery and Nocrudo.

Visitors can take a break from browsing with hot food from food trucks Piggin Out and H-G Catering. Pensthorpe’s Courtyard Café and Snack Shack will also be available, while the much-loved Pensthorpe gift shop offers even more Christmas shopping inspiration.

Visitors can make a full day of their visit by upgrading their Christmas Market ticket to include entry to Pensthorpe at a reduced price. After browsing the stalls, they can explore the nature reserve, play areas and gardens and enjoy time together in the great outdoors.

Pensthorpe members receive free admission to the Christmas Market, and dogs are welcome in the market area.

Tickets are available now. For further information and booking, visit pensthorpe.com/events/christmas-market.
