

PRESS RELEASE

Take an Easter ReTreat in ‘The Nest’ in Norfolk

Pic: Owner, farmer and cheese maker, Sam Steggles with his goats

Fielding Cottage Holidays, a rural farm retreat on the outskirts of Norwich makes a perfect base for exploring the wonderful county of Norfolk and what better way to spend Easter than in your very own barn-style cottage, especially ‘The Nest?’

Over the Easter break, children staying will also be invited down to the farm to meet the goats and enjoy a mini egg hunt.

The Nest, Nightingale and Kingfisher cottages are located on a working farm in Honingham, home to the award winning goats cheese manufacturer Fielding Cottage, just 20 minutes’ drive from Norwich city centre.

The cottages are also only 40 minutes’ drive from the magical Norfolk Broads, with wonderful beaches such as Horsey and Winterton where you can find seals, and one hour’s drive from the famous north Norfolk coast including Holkham and Wells beaches.

‘The Nest’ cottage is perfect for a couple’s retreat. This cosy cottage is situated on the first floor and includes a double bedroom, a spacious ensuite bathroom including a shower and bath, a well-equipped kitchen and an adjoining lounge area.

What’s Different?

The cottages are located on a goat farm run by Sam Steggles and his wife where famous award-winning cheeses are produced and supplied to the likes of Waitrose, Lidl, farmers markets and delis.

Want to learn a new skill? Try their new cheese making courses on how to make delicious goat cheese.

Holidaying at Fielding Cottages immerses you in the English countryside where you can explore on foot or cycle.

On the doorstep is a well-equipped gym, swimming pool, sauna and steam room, tennis and squash courts which guests can use as part of their stay complimentary.

The cottages are located a short drive from the historic and fine city of Norwich where there are plenty of tourist attractions, independent shops and fantastic restaurants.

Within an hour you are at some of the UK's best beaches and have the Norfolk Broads a short drive where you can take a day boat or walk or cycle many of their wonderful trails.

About their other Cottages:

Kingfisher

'Kingfisher' is bright clean and modern. It can sleep up to four people. The entrance leads into a large open plan kitchen which has all the home from home conveniences you would expect and spacious living area, leading out to an outside patio.

Upstairs you will find two ensuite bedrooms, one master bedroom which has a bath and a shower, and a twin bedroom with and ensuite shower room.

Nightingale

'Nightingale' shares the same layout as Kingfisher with views looking out over the lawn and sleeps up to four people.

Nightingale and Kingfisher are dog friendly.

A travel cot and stairgate can be provided on request. On site there is a games room and a ping-pong table, the opportunity to meet the goats and lots of space for outside dining and picnics.

The Goat Shed is the on-site shop selling their own goats' milk and cheeses, as well as seasonal vegetables (such as asparagus and strawberries in the summer), eggs, coffee, honey, jams, ice cream and their Fielding Cottage Skincare range.
